Village News Brief

President's Message

Welcome to the summer issue of the Village Newsletter.

As I write this, summer like weather has returned and with it, the promise of summer activities. The Village will be hosting a Pop-Up Beer Garden at West Milwaukee Park on Thursday July 14th. There will be live music, food trucks, and activities beginning at 5 PM. This is the first time we are doing an event like this, and we would like to do more. This is your park, I hope you can come out to enjoy it.

Our Police Department will be hosting the annual National Night Out on Friday August 19th on the field at West Milwaukee Intermediate School. This is a fantastic opportunity to get together with your neighbors, learn about services and happenings in our community, enjoy food from local restaurants, and roasted sweet corn from your West Milwaukee Lions Club.

Speaking of Lions, did you know that Lions Clubs International is the world's largest service organization with local clubs in over 200 countries around the world? Did you know that local Lions, with the help of Lions International, have been offering aid and assistance to those suffering through the war in Ukraine? Our West Milwaukee Lions Club was chartered in 1937 to serve needs of our residents as well as support the mission of Lions International. We need you to grow and continue this mission. Please contact me for more information on how to join and help. <https://www.wmlionsclub.org> on fb West Milwaukee Lions Club.

When you have a chance, please thank our Police, DPW and Municipal Staff for the outstanding effort they have shown to support all of us and keep our Village a great place to live. In recent weeks, we have seen some disturbing actions by people travelling through the Village and our Police Department has done an outstanding job dealing with them through great investigative and enforcement activities. Thank you!

Public Service opportunities come up from time to time to participate as a citizen commissioner. We currently need volunteers to serve on our Community Development Authority. If you would like to be considered to serve in some capacity, please contact me.

Please remember that you are always welcome to attend our Village Board meetings on the first and third Monday of the month at 7 PM. There is always an opportunity for public comments at the start of these meetings. Hope to see you.

Sincerely,

John Stalewski

THE CATS OF SUMMER

By Karen Sparapani, MADACC

Every year late spring to early summer starts the annual “Kitten Season”. The time of year when shelters become overwhelmed with cats of all ages and will continue to be so through the end of the year. What can you do to help us reduce the number of cats in shelters or living outside?

- Adopt a shelter/rescue cat or kitten. They are all sterilized and will be microchipped to you if they become lost! Getting a free kitten will cost far more than the adoption fee you will pay.
- Adult cats are usually free or have very low adoption fees. Sure, kittens are cute, but they grow up fast. Aside from being financially friendly, you will know what their adult personality is like.
- If you will not sterilize your cat, do not let them roam outside! Intact cats are the ones that exhibit the behaviors everyone complains about. Cats should be indoor pets always, but letting your intact cat go outside contributes to unwanted litters.
- Do not feed outdoor cats! We know it is hard to deny them, but feeding outdoor cats attracts not only other cats, but also wild animals that can be dangerous to other pets and destructive to property.

Indoor cats live happy and full lives. Once let out it's almost impossible to keep them in. Letting your cat breed, especially females, can lead to costly medical issues. Get them sterilized which helps prevent problem behaviors and smells!

RESPECT OUR WATERS

Summer is finally here! Take advantage of the fair weather and find a way to collect and use rainwater on your property!

BERNICE KRUEGER By Jane Edgar

"I just enjoyed my whole life. I always looked forward to the next thing coming. And I enjoyed people." This is from Bernice Krueger who was born on July 18, 1922 and so, is celebrating her 100th birthday this summer. Her parents (father born in 1892 and mother in 1896) purchased their property on Daggett Avenue (now known as 53rd Street) when she was 2 years old. Bernice attended Pershing School along with Walter, a couple classes ahead, who played piano accompaniment to the silent movies after school on Fridays. Walter turned out to be West Milwaukee's famed Liberace!

Bernice graduated from West Milwaukee High School in 1940. After high school she attended MATC for more office classes. After a few months she was hired by M&I Bank in their Trust Department.

Joe was a sailor at Great Lakes Naval Base in 1940. While there, he joined others on a trip to Milwaukee for a dance. It was the same day Bernice came home from a not-so-good fishing trip, so she also went to the dance for some fun. They met, danced, talked a lot, and she invited him over for Sunday dinner. Her mom cooked. In 1943 they were married, and Bernice moved with Joe around the country wherever he was based. Once Joe began to serve on the USS New York, Bernice moved back to West Milwaukee.

A 20-something Bernice

Bernice was an active little girl who walked and roller skated all over West Milwaukee and Milwaukee and enjoyed playing at Liberty Park (then known as Lapham Park) and ice skating at Pershing School. She especially liked the swings, slides and teeter-totters. But she also loved checking books out of the library after learning to read early. Her first book was her favorite: Black Beauty.

Before her folks had a radio they had a Victrola: "You put the record on, turn the crank and put the needle down." It played 78 rpm records. She loved the song "O Genevieve Sweet Genevieve" and that's what she named her doll.

Bernice talks of the old days when coal, ice and milk were all delivered to the home. Many of our Milwaukee bungalows still have the milk chute near the back door. She always knew it was 3:30 a.m. if she heard the clip-clop of Luick's horse who knew every stop for the milk wagon.

Why is she enjoying such longevity? "I've had a great life. I've never been bored."

This summer, on Sunday July 17 from 1 to 4 p.m., we're having a birthday party for Bernice on 53rd Street. A small portion of the street will be closed for several hours that afternoon. Everyone in West Milwaukee is welcome to attend.

Any questions? Call Jane at 414-208-1121

Meet Trustee Jane Edgar

Jane was first elected to the Village Board in 2017 after serving several years on the Village Plan Commission. Jane and her husband, Jim, moved to West Milwaukee in 1992 and purchased their first home in 2000. Son, James, was well served at Pershing Elementary, West Milwaukee Intermediate School and Central High School and Jane was president of the PTA for several years.

“I enjoy living in West Milwaukee because of the casual, friendly atmosphere and number of great neighbors and friends I see on a daily basis,” she says. Hers is a particularly active neighborhood with Jane and friends initiating a large 53rd Street garage sale several years ago with over 20 families joining. When 53rd Street was under construction, the neighbors took advantage of the lack of cars to throw a block party with grills, games and a good time right in the middle of the street.

“West Milwaukee is a great community with ready access to all of Milwaukee County and the rest of Wisconsin with such closeness to the interstate and county highways.” With West Milwaukee being just 1 square mile, Jane appreciates how many businesses, restaurants, stores and establishments are just around the corner. Jane serves as chairperson of the Health, Housing, Social Services and Recreation Committee of the Village Board (which puts her on the Board of Health); and is also on the Public Works, Recycling and Utilities Committee; and the Licenses, Zoning, Parks and Buildings Committee. She also serves on the new Tourism Commission. Areas of concern for Jane include public safety, health, and education. Jane strives to serve as the female voice, being the only woman currently serving on the Board. She wishes more women would get involved in local politics. There are current openings!

Jane reads a lot, walks outdoors 4 miles every day and enjoys old movies and needlework.

Meet Trustee John Ragonese

I was first elected to the Village Board in 1993 during a recall election. I was not on the board for a few years but, returned in 2011. I have served at different times on the CDA, Plan Commission and currently Chair the West Milwaukee Tourism Board. I am chair of the Finance Committee, serve on the Public Safety and Personnel Committees, and am also the President pro tem.

I can see the potential the Village has to be a truly unique and special place. Things can change quickly, and we are on the verge of some major changes. I want to be a part of that for the betterment of all the citizens here. To know that I can help make all that a reality is exciting! Some of the biggest issues the Village faces is maintaining the level of services we have, improving our public safety and doing so without raising taxes.

As difficult as it has been, the Village has been able to maintain a lot of its small-town atmosphere. What I love most about West Milwaukee is that the people are still friendly and it's not difficult to get to know your neighbors. The services are great, and the location is the best in the county. I can be anywhere in about 15 min. The people who work for the Village are very helpful and we maintain a very open board where citizens are always welcomed to come and say what's on their minds. The potential for the Village is truly outstanding. When I was first elected there were so many issues to contend with including a Board that was divided, financial issues that led us to the brink of bankruptcy and no developers wanting anything to do with us. Today, that has come full circle and the Village now has some of the most sought-after real estate in the State. It comes at a price however, and to be honest some mistakes were made in getting here. However, I feel the Village can move forward now from a position of strength it did not have in the past and avoid mistakes that were previously made. I think I can be a positive force in making that future by working alongside the other board members and staff.

Learning That Works

WAWM School District's Music Education Program Receives National Recognition

We are proud to announce that our District's music program has been honored with the Best Communities for Music Education designation from The National Association of Music Merchants (NAMM) Foundation for its outstanding commitment to music education. This is the eighth time that our District has received national recognition from the NAMM Foundation.

"This honor recognizes that our District demonstrates a deep commitment to music education. "It's something we have proudly earned for eight years. Our music educators work very hard to support, encourage and showcase the learning of all students. In addition to everything they do in the classroom and their traditional school concerts, our teachers showcased band, orchestra, and choral performing ensembles in three all district festival concerts this year, and our strings teachers are planning something special for the 50th Anniversary of our Prelude Strings program. We are grateful for this recognition as well as for the support of the NAMM foundation and all the music vendors they represent who have provided many resources to schools and teachers throughout the country during this very challenging time," explains Orchestra Director and Music Coordinator, Mrs. Mary Pat Michels.

"Music education is an important component of our curriculum 4K through 12th grade. As part of our Equity Beliefs, we work with our teachers to provide opportunities for all students utilizing the Deeper Learning Competencies. We focus on communication, collaboration, public performance, immediate feedback, and a sense of belonging in Music and Fine Arts, by supporting our children in developing their talents and pursuing things of interest to them. I am proud of our work and the dedication of our teachers in serving the children in our community," says Superintendent, Dr. Marty Lexmond.
